Jos. Williams, of Yadkin, the handsomest anmarried man in the State, was in the city yesterday. For the relief of our "courting" young men in Raleigh, we will say that he left for home on the 6 o'clock train yesterday evening.

A rock-mason, whose name we were unable to learn, was seriously injured at the government building yester-day by a rock falling from the wall, and crushing him to the ground. His leg was broken as well as sustaining other painful injuries.

Special attention is called to the advertisement of Upchurch & Bag-ley, the popular Wilmington street grocers, to be found in another column. We are glad to know that this enterprising firm of young men, are building up a large trade. Merit

The many friends of Jonathan Pool, Esq. of this county, who recently sustained such severe injuries by his arm being caught in a cotton gin, causing amputation, will be glad to learn that he is rapidly recovering from his injuries. He has been under the treatment of Dr. J. B. Dunn, of this city.

Jake Scott, of Jones county, indignantly denies the assertion that he ls the ugliest man in the House, and demands an investigation before a committee. It is understood that the principal doorkeeper of the House and the NEWS reporter are not strictly members of that body, and must not be considered as candidates.

James O. Robertson, late Editor of the Cherokee Herald, will visit the Sampson County Fair this week in the interest of the State Agricultural Journal. He will also represent the DAILY NEWS. We ask our friends n that section to give Mr. Robertson a hearty welcome, for he deserves it, and we know the people of that section will not question the merit of the papers he represents. He will also represent Our Living and Onr

THE NORFOLK MASONIC RELIEF Association.—The managers of the Masonic Relief Association have issued the following address:

The Board of Directors of this Association, feeling assured that the patrons of their enterprise and the public generally, are satisfied that in its management the interests of all concerned will be strictly guarded with honesty and fairness, and relying upon the belief that all who have aided us in our effort to complete the Masonic Temple in this city are willing to rely upon our judgment as to the expediency of another postponement for a few days, not withstanding our annuncement that the Concert would positively be given on the 19th inst., have decided that a short delay will be more satisfactory to all hold-ers of tickets than to have a partial drawing on Thursday next.

The following reasons have induced us to this action:

1st. While our receipts have been large, they have not been of sufficient amount to enable us to give a full drawing.

amount to enable us to give a full drawing.

2d. A drawing on the 19th instant, would not yield enough to accomplish the object for which our Association was organized and chartered.

3d. The encouragement shich we have received convinces that in forty days, more we shall, which in its results will be acceptable to all our friends. We have therefore fixed friends. We have therefore fixed upon Tuesday, December 29th, as the day when the concert and distribu-tion will take place, whether all the tickets are sold or not, or the money will be refunded upon application and presentation of the tickets at the agency where purchased.

By order of the Board of Directors. HENRY V. MOORE, Secretary.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY .- In the Senate yesterday the only question discussed was one of Senator Cant-well's requiring the postponement of legislation upon various subjects, in order that they may all be considered in an omnibus bill. In the course of debate upon this question, (a report of which will be found in the Senate proceedings,) Mr. Cantwell was permitted to make the first political speech of the session.

A large number of bills were introduced in the House, all of which were referred to appropriate commit-Tho calendar was taken up and exhausted. The only bill or res-lution that caused any discussion was the Civil Rights resolution, introduced by Mr. Trivett, and the substitute therefor by Mr. Means. Mr. Means advocating the adoption of turned to his seat in the housevester-day, from a brief business visi to his county.

The festival for the benefit of Perwhich we will lay before our readers probably in our next issue. The colored Representative from New Hanover, Lloyd, speechified muchly, and we may say incoherently in advocacy of the Congressional Civil Rights bill, and expressed his hostility to both the resolution and substitute. 131, closing steady at 131, with good He was particularly severe on his feeling existing with both buyers and brethren of the party, though with white skins were now opposing the main principles of the great Republican party that proclaimed civil can citizens. Brewington, a very darkly colored Representative from New Hanover, will probably have a say on the resolution to-day, as he attempted to get the floor vesterday as the motion was made to adjourn.

> GAMBLING.-We are more than pleased to observe that a bill has been introduced in the House to preven gambling on Fair Grounds It will doubtless pass, and become a law But, would it not be wise to pass a general law in regard to gambling? It is as bad on our crowded city thoroughfares as on Fair Grounds There are several licensed gambling concerns in operation on the princi pal streets of this city in open air, and the most public places the proprietors of the concerns can plant themselves. The Charlotte papers contain accounts of thieving and windling operations of men licensed by the statute laws of our State to plunder and rob the people, and the evil is increasing and extending to even the towns and villages. It is with the present Legislature to check the evil. In addition to our prayer. we add the following, clipped from the Charlotte Democrat: "The present Legislature should do omething for the benefit of the young men of North Carolina by bolishing lottery or any other gambling schemes which claim to act under a charter heretofore granted by the Legislature. The concern known as the "Beneficial Association" should be abolished by law The charter has been perverted and should be repealed. "We call the attention of legislators to the matter, and ask the Raleigh daily papers to help in the mat-ter by copying this article."

EVE-IANA.-Col. C. W. Eve is the spicy localizer of the Asheville Pioneer. His announcement as independent candidate for Superior Court Clerk, copied in the NEWS at the time, could not have been beaten by Mark Twain himself, while many of his local briefs are really superior to those of the Danbury News man. The following are a few of his SHARPERS AND THIEVES IN OUR MIDST.—For some days we have noticed the Charlotte and Columbia papers accounts of the operations of the thieves and plunderers who had attended the Fairs of those cities, and we had warned the police of this city to be on the alert. Yesterday the areant courier of their gang arrived here, and officers King and Crosson espied him and instituted a close watch upon his movements, and soon watch upon his movements, and soon had him in limbo for stealing ten dollars from a negro man by the use of one of his tricks. We commend the policemen for this action, and if any others should reach here we hope they will be served in a similar manner. Not a more thorough lot of infamous thieves ever infeated any country than have been preying upon the good people of North and South Carolina for the last two months.

DISTRIBUTION OF STATE ARMS. The Adjutant General has forwarded one hundred cadet breech-loading rifle muskets to each of the military schools of the State, viz: The Hor-ner & Graves' School, at Hillsboro; Bingham's School, at Mebanesville, and the Charlotte Military Institute He has also, at the depot in Raleigh (arrived to-day) a 4 gun battery of artillery, with a complete sett of implements, including limbers, cais sons, &c. These guns are bronze 12 pounders, and are intended for the use of the Artillery Company recent-ly organized in Raleigh, of which Captain A. B. Stronach is comman-

For the Daily News. The Right Man in the Right Place, Messrs. Editorst-In these times when so few public officers do their duty, and are honest in their administration, when one is found, the peo-ple should know it, so they they may appreciate his services. I have re-cently visited the State Penitentiary and was astonished to find the work so far advanced, and so admirably executed; and yet, though right at our doors, so little is known of it. I take it that the construction of this people than any other work in which the State is at present engaged, for it is here that large sums of money are to be expended, but they need feel no apprehension while the work is under the control of the present skillful and able manager, Mr. W. J. Hicks. It is to Mr. Hicks that the people owe their thanks, for under his careful and economical management, the cost of construction has been reduce one-half, and its character improved tenfold. I feel very sure that the masonry will compare most favorably with like work in any state in the Union, and if Mr. Hicks is spared to continue the work to its completion, it will be alike creditable to the

CALENDAR.

A resolution in regard to certain legislation introduced by Mr. Cantwell, was taken up, and that Senator explained it as being a resolution to put all private bills in one omnibus bill, such as reliefs for Sheriffs, corporations, &c.

Mr. Standford opposed the resolution, for it covered all legislation that would come before this body, and he moved to lay the resolution on the table, at the same time stating that he did it with no unkindness to the nator from New Hanover, whom he had always liked and who in former days stood shoulder to shoul-der with him; he hoped this friendship might remain. Mr. Cantwell followed at some length, reviewing his connection with the parties in the State, in the past and present. He was proud to class himself at present with such men as Settle, Bynum, Rodman, Barringer, Holden and others, who he claimed were old line Democrats.

Mr. Waring begged to correct the gentleman. Messrs. Barringer and Byrium were formerly Whigs.

Mr. Cantwell hoped the gentlemen upon the floor who had discussed this constitution with him timest yet. this question with him "might yet go where Holden, Rodman and Set-tle had gone to." [Laughter.] The speaker said he "did not mean that he wanted to see the gentlemen im-

THE Washington Republican desires Mr. GARFIED, as one of the most trusted of the Republican members of Congress, "to bring up his party to a higher plane of thought and action than he has yet done." When Mr. GARFIED enters upon that work he will find it just the largest job he ever undertook.

THE Washington Monument, which has been for so many years a disgraco to the whole country, says the Washington Republican, seems likely to be completed by 1876. Saturday last we printed a list of the returns made by the different societies and organizations all over the country to the recent appeal of the association. The exhibit is exceedingly gratifying and encouraging.

THE Cuban Insurrection still lives. The insurgents, indeed, have not been so active or aggressive at any time within the last three or four years as they are now, and it is upon reports of the Spanish authorithat this important fact is disd. Don CARLOS, fighting for the archy in Spain, is evidently

THE Washington Republican is now endeavoring to make the said believe that the people of the South are working to the end that the blacks may be put back into slavery again. We should think the Repubcan had become disgusted with its miserable falsehoods concerning the Southern people—at least the people of the country have long since hitherto mentioned in the newspaturned a deaf ear to such nonsense, and we heartily rejoice at it.

RUMORS of changes in the Cabinet continue. They have been so frequent and false heretofore, that we long since learned to distrust them. If, however, the report that the President had telegraphed Minister WASHBURNE, desiring his presence in Washington, be true, there may be some foundation for the report now current. If WASHBURNE shall come back, somebody in the Cabinet will be displaced. We care nothing as to the person. It would be diffie cult to get together a huger lot of incapables.

SAYS the Chicago Tribune : "We give for what it is worth a rumor that the counsel engaged by BEECHER, TILTON et al., have decided to withdraw from the various libel suits on the ground that they would involve private matters not fit to be made public. It is not possible that the eminent legal gentlemen mentioned in our dispatches are such fools as to think that it is in their power to save the reputation of both BEECHER and TILTON. One of them must be pilloried for a rascal, or the people will never be content,"

The Amnesty Bill.

Representative STAPLES, of Guilford, did a timely and needed thing when he introduced his bill granting amnesty to all persons, charged with the commission of the peculiar offences which grew out of the Ku Klux excitement of 1869 and 1870. We have not seen the bill and cannot therefore now give its details; but we trust that it provides for full and complete pardon and amnesty to all participants in those unfortunate difficulties. The bill passed by the last General Assembly was special in its provisions, and failed to give relief to numbers of those indicted, or subject to indictment, for the violations to which we have alluded.

The time has come, we think, when an extension of the benefits of that bill may be safely made. Happily for her people profound peace prevails throughout the Commonwealth of N. C. The law is respected and obeyed, and the relations between the races are every day growing more pleasant. Two exciting political campaigns have been fought since 1870, and no instance of persecution for opinion's sake has occurred, so far as we remember. The free citizens of the State have exercised that highest privilege of citizenship—the right of suffrage-without fear or right of suffrage—without fear or bery has been looked upon as one of molestation. Grave issues have been the pillars of the organization.

warmly and earnestly discussed and then deliberately decided, Under the influence of a healthy public sentiment, secret political societies have disappeared from our midst; and we hear no more of midnight outrages and crimes, even in the addresses of Paper in the City of Raleigh That the most intemperate partisans.

The continued threat is a serious injury to them in every way, and the passage of the bill would be to them a boon and blessing. But it is not for them alone we plead. They are inconsiderable in number in comparison with that vast body of persons, their mothers, wives, fathers and children, who are interested in their well-doing, and who suffer because of the danger of punishment to which they are exposed. These latter are innocent of any crime or offense, and yet because of their relations to them they are sharers in all the troubles difficulties which he bers of the organizations. For them, because they suffer while yet they are innocent, we would be glad to see the bill become a law immediately.

But this more can be said : Fearing arrest and imprisonment a large number of young men left the State in 1870 and made homes in other sections. North Carolina can ill afford to lose their brawn and brain and muscle. The press of the State, the General Assembly of the State at every session, invite the incoming of immigrants upon the plea that her material interests would thereby take benefit. Why not call these exiled sons home? They wish to return, This is their home, their place of birth and of affection, and they would gladly come back to us were they not deterred by the menace of punishment. Pass this bill and invite them to come. "They are flesh of our flesh, bone of our bone;" and no class of immigrants can compare with them in those qualities which made good citizens. We need their help in the development of our manifold and magnificent resources. Will not the General Assembly, catching the spirit of these sing good service for the cause of the hearts of those here who love then adependence and of the Republic in by declaring full, complete, generous punishment by reason of things done the times and under the circum-

t will. We believe it will.

19th, says: The leading Grangers of the State pers, that the entire funds of the order in Missouri, amounting to $20,-000, have been misappropriated. The State Treasurer of the order since its establishment has been C. T. Quesenbery, an extensive farmer and stock raiser of Mexico, in Audrian county. Quesenbery was also the candidate for Register of Lands on the amalgamated State ticket of the Republican People's party. It has been observed by one or two of the State officers of the grange that Quescnbery during the past four months has been spending a good deal of money and invest-ing in unprofitable real estate. At the secret meeting of the State Grange, at Kansas City, three weeks ago, the matter of the funds was called up, and very unexpectedly the State Treasurer was asked to pay over the entire amount called for in his report, about $20,000, on the ground that the grange proposed to put it in a manufactory. Quesenbery was brought to the scratch, and finally confessed that he had been speculating with the money, and most of it was locked up so that he could not get at it on short notice without heavy sacrifice. The grange then demanded that he at once pay over $4,000 to meet the expenses of their week's session at Kansas City. Even for this amount the treasurer had to depend on a friend, A. R. Ringo, President of the Farmers and Traders' Bank at Mexico. He drew the check on Ringo, and it was met. Quesenbery then hurried back to Mexico, and, paying no more attention to the political canvass, devoted himself to straightening up his affairs. He sold his fine residence in Mexico and cleared off a mortgage on a farm of seven hundred acres in Audrian county. With con-

The seriousness of the situation brought together the Executive Board of the State Grange, who at once sent a delegation, headed by Judge Roach, to Mexico. These gentlemen have spent the best part of a week in looking into Quesenbery's affairs, and found them desperate enough. They got from him deeds of trust on two large farms, and papers covering all he possessed, together with a bond of personal security signed by Thomas Nelson, David Binian and John B. Clark, the three solid men of Audrain. They also forced him into a promise to pay over immediately $5,000, and on the first of next July the balance, $11,200.

Quesenbery is now making every effort to raise the required first pay-ment. He has a herd of eighty-four thoroughbred pedigree cattle, said to be the finest in Missouri, and valued at $20,000. Upon these he is trying to raise the payment, but so far has been unsuccessful. The Executive Board hope to come out even, but Quesenbery will probably be ruined. The whole affair has been kept as secret as possible, the leading Grangers saying that it will prove almost the death-blow to the order in Mis-souri if discovered, and that it will destroy all confidence in the management of the State Grange. The publication of the facts will cause a tremendous sensation among the farmers throughout the whole State. Quesen-

Ladies and gentlemen will attend in the dress of the time, the gentlemen in knee bree silk stockings, cutaway coat and bag wig, and the ladies in the cap, scarf, stomachers and petti-coat of "ye olden time." Many of the dresses will be very elaborate, and some ladies have gone so far as to visit the house of Mr. A. T. TAILORING. POLONIUS' ADVICE TO Costly thy Habit as thy Purse can Buy." It will be remembered by Shakespearan readers in the play of Hamlet, the advice of Polonius to his son Laeftes, who was just in the act of leaving Denmark for a journey to France, wherein he said:

"Costly thy habit as thy purse can buy, but not expressed in fancy; rich Bot gaudy—for the apparel of proclaims the man,"

Ministers from the pulpit have said that every young man should paste in his hat the remarks in full of Polonius.

WEIKEL, the Merchant Tailor. in endorsing all that has been said on the subject, would remark that he is better prepared than ever to supply to his numer-ous friends and customers "habits" just as those mentioned. "Rich, but not audy," and not so "costly" as you might suppose. His stock of Wilmington has a Society of Spiritualists. 13,00 bales of cotton were sold in Charlotte last week.

The Charlotte Home is opposed to calling a Convention. Mrs. P. W. Lander's theatrical troupe are playing this week on the Charlotte boards.

The cadets of the Charlotte Military Institute, Major Thomas in com-mand, will visit the Wilmington Fair in a body.

The so-called Carrington's circus was at Snow Hill on Thursday, and from those who were there, we learn that it was a "first-class humbug." Sheriff Wm. D. Deans, of Wayne, will make his settlement with the State Treasurer during the present week. The amount of State tax for Wayne is about $11.500. Wholesale robberies are the order of the night in Wilmington. The police are good on tracing the thieves to their Lairs, but always by accident allow them to escape.

It now appears that the man Deal. who was found dead in Kinston, while Robinson's circus was performing in that town, was killed, not by man, but by lighteing whiskey. This is from the Asheville Pioneer, a Republican newspaper: "Our townsman, Col. W. M. Hardy, has been elected Reading Clerk of the Lower House of the Legislature, Wash is a clever gentleman, and makes a good clerk."

Says the Charlotte Home: "Only 18 miles of track remain unlaid on the C. C. R. R., and the rails are being laid at the rate of a mile a day in good weather. The company has purchased the Wilkes property in this city, known as the Mecklenburg Iron Works, and will erect a depo thereon, the city having granted a right of way through A street, thus bringing passengers and freight to the heart of the city."

The Federal Court at Asheville closed its session on Saturday last. We clip from the Asheville Pioneer the following as the result of its operations:

About fifty cases were nolle prossed under the ruling of his Honor that parties indicted for offences committed prior to 1872 could compromise the same by payment of costs. The following is the number of convictions in the conspiracy and counter-continued, the accused being recognized in a bond of $10,000 for his appearance at the next term of the Court.

Col. Oscar Eastmond, charged with conspiracy to obstruct the course of justice, was arraigned, and failing to give bond in the sum of $2,000 was committed to jail.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN V. C. RAMBAUT.—The Petersburg (Va.) Index announces the death of Captain Gilbert V. Rambaut, the first Chamberlain of that city, on Saturday evening. The Index says:

Captain Rambaut was the son of Captain Rambaut, a merchant of Richard Rambaut, a merchant of Bordeaux, France, who attied here soon after the Revolutionary War. His mother was one of the French emigrees of St. Domingo, Millo. De la Roche, daughter of Eugene De la Roche, a planter of St. Domingo, whose elder brother, the Marquis de Tour la Roche, perished on the guillotine along with so many of the French nobility of the ancient regime. This lady, betrothed in her childhood to her cousin, De la Rochefoucauld, and married at only fifteen foucauld, and married at only fifteen years of age, was forced to flee to Baltimore to escape the massa-cre of St. Domingo, in which the young husband and her father were killed. When young, not twenty years of age, she was married to Richard Rambaut, then on a business visit to Baltimore. Of this marriage Captain Rambaut was the eldest child and only son. He was born in 1799 at Bates' Spring, a country residence of his father, near Petersburg, perhaps being the oldest native born citizen of this city. He entered the Confederate service when over sixty years of age as captain of artillery. Captain Rambaut leaves five children, and died at the residence of Mrs. Wm. E. Morrison, his oldest daughter. His two sons, Maj. G. V. Rambaut and Mr. R. S. Rambaut, are residing at Memphis, Tennessee. His second daughter, Mrs. Lewis Warrenton, who resides in Baltimore, was the only one of his children who reached here in time to see him die, his son, Maj. Rambaut, being now on his way to the

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.—It is understood that the President has collected from the heads of the several executive departments the materials for his annual message to Congress in December, and that we may anticipate in the message a full exposition of his views according to the leading points of his letter of the last session to Senator Jones .- N. Y.

John B. Ellis, a young lawyer, in company with three other practitioners at the bar in Washington, on Saturday night sat in the law office of B. Webb and drank port wine from a twenty-gallon keg. Ellis and another of the party were taken sick and vomited freely. Dr. Walsh was called in and pronounced Ellis' sickness acute apoplexy. He prescribed for him and the man went to sleep. About 4 o'clock the jantor of the building left and he was still sleep-ing. When the janitor came back at 8 o'clock Ellis was found dead on the floor. One of the others is still very sick. The quantity of wine remaining in the keg was measured, and if it was full when they commenced drinking the four of them consumed three gallons. They tapped the keg at 3 p. m., and it was 8:30 when the physician was called in.

Mr. Alexander H. Stephens writes private letter, which has reached Washington (Ga.) Gazette, as follows, concerning the elections: "The news of the elections throughout the country is exceedingly encouraging to the patriots of the land. The next House of Representatives will be Democratic for the first time will be Democratic for the first time in fourteen years. If this majority shall but prove itself equal to its mission—that is, keep the party on the great principles on which it was founded—and go after no 'new departures,' a bright future may await us." Mr. Stephens is silent about his latest "new departure". his latest "new departure," the third term. Perhaps he is not so much in favor of it as he was.

The weekly papers are making a good point now for keeping the following item before their readers: "A family in Florida lost their little boy, and advertised for him in a daily paper. That very afternoon an alli-gator crawled up out of the swamp and died on the front door step. In his stomach was found a handful of ed hair, some bone buttons, a pair of boot heels, a glass alley, a pair of check pants, and a paper collar. The advertisement did it."

Arrangements have been made to disinter the bodies of one Colonel and sixteen Confederate privates belonging to Early's force, who fell during the skirmishes near the District and Maryland line in 1864, and to bury the remains in the Episcopal Church Cemetery in that vicinity.

The New York Tribune has susended work on its new building until the times are better."

Thus THOUSAND PROPLE. There are more than ten thousand people in the United States who expect to be the happy possessors of the first grand prize in the Kentucky Gift Concert of $50,000. All of them but one will be disappointed. One will get it, for Governor Brambite, the manager at Louisville, has annogned that the Concert will positively take place on November 38. 1871; that three will be no further positionement, and if our readers want to know more about it, wile to him.

THE STORM AT TUSCUMBIA.

Scenes and Incidents of the Terrible
Disaster—The Falling of the Railroad Train Through the Bridge Over Spring Creek—An Effort to Save the Train Proving Fruitless.

TUSCUMBIA, ALA., Nov. 24.—By the storm of Sunday about three hundred persons were deprived ot homes and the total loss to the town and private individuals is estimated at five hundred thousand dollars.

The Memphis and Charleston Rail Road Company looses twenty thousand dollars.

The storm came on while most of the people were supping. It came like the sound of rushing thunder and passed over immediately. The houses were blown down and in many places the streets and roads were everywhere filled with crumbling walls and shattered timbers. The people immediately organized and appointed leaders and set about rescuing those held by fallen timbers and recovering the bodies of the clifed. In addition to the killed nentioned in yesterday's Nashville lispatch, 30 persons were injured. Soon after the storm had blown ver, it was discovered that the iron railroad bridge over Spring creek, about half a mile from town, had been completely destroyed. At the same moment it was remembered that the train from Memphis could be expected to arrive at any moment. The utmost confusion prevailed. No one seemed to know what to do. At length a young man named Womble seized a huge stick of pine wood, and after thrusting it into a fire in a house near by, he rushed towards the broken bridge, waving the blazing wood over his head as he went. He had almost reached the creek when his torch was extinguished by the rain, which was falling in torrents. At the same time the whistle of the train was heard, and the next moment the head light flashed through the darkness. The young man called with all his might, but the Engineer heard nothing but the sound of the storm, and before any warning could be conveyed to him, the engine, baggage car and one passenger coach went over the embankment fifty feet down into the creek. The rear passenger cars did not go off the track, it being blocked up by the wreck of the fore-most ones. The engineer, firemen baggage master went over with it. They were cut out of the ruins after two hours hard work. They were very dangerously burned and bruised, but are expected

Several of the passengers were slightly injured, but none of them were prevented from proceeding on to recover.

The searching party first removed oned. the ruins of State Senator Moore's PAI house. Mrs. Moore was found on a bed with two heavy timbers laying across her, and two children under her dead, crushed all out of shape. Two other children were rescued

John Hodgkins was blown out of the second-story window of his house, and the house was blown down, burying his brother's family. On cutting through the wreck Mr. Hodgkins, his wife and four children were all found crushed to death.

The mansion of Mrs. Winston was blown down, and she found killed by a heavy wardrobe and other furniture. The house was valued at over forty thousand dollars. Her son-in-law, Ex-Governor Lindsay, who occupied a portion of the house was unhurt.

The Work of the Recent Gale. NEW YORK, Nov. 24th.—Heavy gales, with no material damage, be-yond high tides which flooded low The steeple of the Baptist Church at Sing Sing is down. The telegraph poles and many unsubstantial buildings were prostrated. The less at Trenton is fifty thousand dollars. A brakesman was blown from the train and killed. The meadows back of Elizabeth port is flooded six feet deep. Much hay is destroyed.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

South Carolina Legislaturo Assembled. COLUMBIA, S. C., November 24.-

The Legislature assembled to-day. Ex-Congressman Elliott was elected Speaker of the House. CHARLESTON, S. C., Nov. 24.-The new Legislature met at Columbia to-day. Elliott, colored, who recently resigned his seat in Congress to become a leader in the Legislature, was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives by a vote of 61 to 51, the latter including the whole delegation elected by the Fusion party in Charleston. The delegation con-tains several representatives of the property and commercial interests, hitherto unrepresented in the Legislature, and proceedings have been begun to contest their seats, although they were elected by nearly 300 majority.

Heavy Storm at the North-Great Damage Sustained.

PORT CLAIBORNE, ONT., Nov. 24th. The water in the canal has reached the level of Lake Erie and the Lock gates have been thrown open by the passing through; this never happened before. In the Willaud canal the water in the harbor has risen six or seven feet. The storm of last night was one of the most severe ever experienced. The water washed over the piers with such force that it was impossible to see the light houses and the keepers found it impossible to get out to light the lamps. Much damage was done to shipping and to the buildings in course of erec-An Appeal for Help.

TUSCUMBIA, ALA., Nov. 24th lowing telegram : To His Excellency, U.S. Grant, President of the United States:

Last night this town was visited by a tornado, which destroyed a large portion of it. The houses are levelled to the ground. Ten persons have been killed, and as a consequence, destitution prevails to an extent that no language can express. There is no money in the country, and the sufferings of the destitute cannot be relieved by individual aid, and it is therefore, that this appeal is made to your Excellency for imme-diate relief by order for supply of rations, and I am authorized by large town meeting to make this appear. Hoping and believing that your Excellency will respond prompty and plentifully. ned good (Signed,)

DAVID R. LINDSAY, Chairman of the Town Meeting, and heartily endorsed by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen. The following reply was sent:

Important Foreign News. New York, November 24.- A letter from Havana, dated the 19th inst., says: "Last month a party of 25 Spanish soldiers of the artillery, garrisoning at Fort St. Hilarie, in the Central Depot, revolted and seized a coasting vessel at Puerto Del Padre, on the North coast, and under threats of death forced the Captain of the vessel to get under way, ordering him to take them to Key West, St. Thomas or any of the neighboring Islands. The Captain, seeming to accede to their wishes, weighed anchor and set sail, but ran the vessel aground on a neighboring of Key West. He then jumped into a small boat and under a pretext of getting aid, went to the earest military beadquarters and informed the commander, who sent a force of men to arrest the deserters. They were tried by Court Martial, journey. They were delayed and on the sixth instant, eleven of FIFTH AND LAST GIFT CONCERT IN AID OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF KENTUCKY.—A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.—The management have determined to have the drawing of the Fifth and Last Gift Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky on the 30th day of November next. We believe now that all the tickets will be sold, and that the drawing will be a full one; but whether all are sold or not, the drawing will nevertheless certainly come off on the day appointed.

The special object of this card is to call a meeting of the ticket-holders at Public Library Hall, on the 20th o' November to make arrangements in connection with Library Hall, on the 20th of November to make arrangements in connection with the committee appointed by the Trustees to superintend the counting of the tags representing the number of tickets soid. While there is no actual necessity for the presence of ticket-holders, as under our arrangements the interests of all are equally cared for, yet at the same time I would greatly prefer that as many of those interested as can, would attend this meeting and see each for himself how perfectly fair and impartial the distribution must be.

Every arrangement has been made for the drawing—but little more than a month remains for the sale of the remainder of the tickets, and whatever is done must be done promptly.

PLATER OVERBOARD THOS EVER!

The friends of truth and Justice will be rejoiced to learn that the Board of Canvassers, which met in Richmond, Va., on Monday, gave the certificate of election to Hon, John Goode as having been elected to Congress from the Norfolk District over Platt. Says a Richmond dispatch of Monday night ! 11:30 P. M.—At 9:45 o'clock the State Board adjourned, after making the following decision in the Goode-Platt contest: "The Board of State

Can vassers having considered the objections made by the contestants to the returns from the Second Congressional Destrict, by which it appears that 14,377 votes were given for Jas. H. Platt as Representative in Congress from said District, and 14,053 gress from said District, and 14,053 were given for John Goode as such representative; giving to J. H. Platt, Jr., a majority of votes, are of opinion that there was no power by law in the Commissioners of Election in Prince George, Southampton and James City, York and Bussex to amond the section returns made by them and returned to the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth; but they are of opinion that the rebut they are of opinion that the re-Election in the county of Prince George is defective in this, that the abstract of votes given at said election is no certified and attested as required by law; and rejecting the returns from that county, the votes will stand: For J. ception of this news: good moor gai's Although there was not the slightest doubt of the justice of our cause, or that the Hon. John Goode had been rightfully elected to represent the Second District in Congress, there has been a scarcely definable feeling of uneasiness, prevalent among all ranks of our people, which was not dispelled until last night, when the cheering telegram came that the certificate had been swarded to Goode. It also contained the suggestive word, hurrah! which was atted upon at once, the streets, even at 11 p. m., being still full of people, and such a shout went up from the rarely heard in this city. In an inconceivably short time a number of barrels were procured and bon-fires them were shot, and the rest impris- blazed on the principal streets, while the air resounded with cheers for

John Goode.
The Fire Department was out fr force to see that no damage resulted in consequence of the high wind, and the whole city seemed to be in a per-fect furore of joy. Ladles waived their handkerchiefs from windows and balconies, and the ever increasing throng promenaded the streets, shouting forth their admiration for the great Virginian. A section of the Blues' Battery was brought out, and eager hands assisted in hauling it to the vacant lot in the rear of Atlantic Block, where a salute was fired in honor of the occasion. As we now write, at 12 o'clock, the roar of artillery is scarcely audible above the cheers of the multitude. while the air is ablaze with rockets. Roman candles, and other fireworks. The hold of Mr. Goode, our Congressmen elect, upon the affection of the people, was more conclusively shown last night than ever during the canvass which resulted in his election, and the evidences given must afford him sincere gratification. A single instance will show that this affection is not merely political, but heartfelt for the man. A party of young citizens procured the Goode Campaign Brass Band, and, late as was the hour, serenaded the family of Mr. Goode, he not being present to

JACOB S. ALLEN, Esq., of the well-known firm of Betts, Allen & Co., Raleigh, N. C., says of the Oil:

I formerly had the same opinion of "Pratt's Astral Oil" as of other advertised Safety and Non-Explosive Oils, until a few months ago, when there was knocked from a high deak a lamp holding at least a quart of "Astral Oil." The lamp in its fall struck on the side of my baby's cradle, and the entire contents sell into the cradle. The burning wick was taken out of the puddle of oil formed in the cradle. I consider Pratt a great family benefactor. I would not be without the oil. I know it is perfectly safe.

J. H. SEPARK, Esq., of Separk, fileks & Ob., Iron Founders, Raleigh, N. C., writes:

We had a good test of the non-explosiveness of "Pratte's Astral Oil." My little daughter knocked a large glass lamp, holding perhaps a quart of "Astral Oil" from off the support whie. The same was broken to pieces and the burning wick fell into the oil without taking fire. This accident occurring in the midst of my family, I am satisfied the ismp been siled with Korosene Oil that the consequence would have been most lamentable. I would not be without the oil at any cost, and judging from this nocident, I regard it as farmed as a water.

B. J. PERKINSON, Frq., near Releigh, N. C., writes:

I have used Fratt w Astral Oil for several years, and consider it a most excellent and safe fiuld. I have fred tempscarelessiv upset and broken wille burning, and think the use of Pratt's Astral Oil has saved both life and property in my family.

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS:

From Prot. W. G. Simmons, Wake Forest College, North Carolina. Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir: We have for several months been using your Bradley's Petent Enamel Path t on our College Building, and are wellpleased with it. The ugh it was applied by one heaving no experience in such work, yelve have a good job. We shall continue to use it—believing that in point of economy, durability and facility of application, it is superior to any other pigment offered in the market.

W. G. SIMMONS. WAKE FOREST COLIZGE, N. C., October 4, 1873.

From Messrs. Engelhard & Saunders. Editors and Proprietors Journal. Wilmington, N. C., December, 28, 1873.

We desire to call especial attention to the advertisement of "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint." We can recommend if from a knowledge offits merits. Some of the employees of this office having pured ded some of this patel from Mr. C. P. Knight, of Baltimore, have used it and speak in the highest terms if it, after a trial of several months. While it is as durable as ordinary paint, it has a such finer finish, and its cost and convenience will recommend it to all in need of paint.

THE PLAINS, FAUIER Co., VA., Feb. 6, 1873. Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The paint came ask to hand a ordered, 2 kegs, 5 gallon each, and 3 buckets, I gallon each. As practice was slack! I did the job myself. Two weeks (not constant work) completed the house, two can't the last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that, for "enamel," like nardness, and body and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place! I have saved sixty-five dollars by the operation—which is an item just now with the Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabled in such stock as "testimonials," but I feel so forgely the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people—in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed," that I give you permission (if it is desirable to you) to make what use you thing proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly.

VANTHINE!! WHAT IS IT? NOT A DYE! A RESTORATIVE The Best Hair Dressing Ever Knows. READ! READ! READ!

From Rev. Dr. Baird. Secretary Board of Publication: The Xanhine is the only hair dressing I have ever used which removed the dandruff from the selp and made my hair soft and pilable. It has also restored my hair to its original color, and by occasionally using it as a dressing I have no doubt it will preserve the color. E. T. BAIRD. Richmond, Va., July 27, 1874.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., June 12, 1874. Dear Sir: I have used the Xanthine for one year, and find it answers the purpose it is prepared for. I had used other preparations for the same purpose, viz: the restoration of the hair to the natural color; but was compelled to abandon them, because they affected my system, gave me rheumatism and neuralgia. Xanthine, however, has not had this effect; on the contrary, has been beneficial in this respect. Hoping that you may be successful to its sale.
